

SAVE THE DATE!

Ignatian Solidarity Network Ignatian Family Teach-In on Immigration March 7-9, 2008 Loyola High School, Los Angeles

ISN invites the Ignatian family to attend a two-day learning experience exploring immigration through the lens of human dignity and personal experience in order to grapple with the following questions:

- Why do families travel thousands of miles to move to the United States?
- What is their journey like?
- What is the experience of immigrant families?
- What legislative strategies or advocacy efforts can improve the quality of life for immigrant families living in the United States?
- How can the Ignatian family accompany the immigrant community?

Registration begins November 1st, 2007

Tentative Schedule

1. Friday March 7th 5:00 - 9:00 pm
2. Saturday March 8th 9:00-4:00 pm, followed by dinner and small group discussions
3. Sunday March 9th 9:00-1:00

Housing options and registration fees will be finalized by Oct 30th

For more information or questions contact the ISN office at 415-422-2408 or info@ignatiansolidarity.net